About the Artist: Dumpsta Dragons

Dumpsta Dragons is an Asian duet with a love of music from around the world. At an early age, Alcvin was inspired by old samurai movie soundtracks, eventually training in Japan to become a grandmaster of shakuhachi. Andrew studied the sitar in India, before utilizing his love of science to create new and wonderous inventions. Eventually he toured the world with the band Delhi 2 Dublin. They perform in BC schools to encourage an awareness of various cultures and perspectives. Through their message that "music is everywhere", they aim to inspire children to expand their imagination in the creation of music.

About the Performance

In this 45 minute musical performance, 8 songs will be performed on sitar, shakuhachi, didgeridoo, kalimba, as well as homemade inventions, the Moroccan hockeystick, and Persian tennis racquet. There will be an explanation of historical/cultural significance as well as the inpiration behind each invention. Andrew will also demonstrate how to turn a spoon in to a guitar, with brief explanation of the physical principles involved. Students will be invited to try some of the instruments, and experience beatboxing and looping.. They will be encouraged to freely express their creativity. The audience is asked to listen attentively, but to also have fun.

Pre-Performance Discussion Questions

What are some household items that could be used to create music? Why is it good to recycle?

Name some instruments that mimic the sounds of nature? What are some instances where music from different cultures came together to form a new genre?

What are some examples of how science and technology influenced the evolution of music?

Links to Curriculum

- -Provide an introduction to music and dance from a variety of cultural, historical, and social contexts.
- -Demonstrate recycling and science in action through the creation of musical instruments out of unwanted household items.
- Compare how tradition and technology work together to influence the evolution of music.

May
Asian Heritage Month	A month dedicated to honour and recognize the many contributions of people of Asian ethnicity to B.C. and Canada's rich cultural society. Over the last 2 centuries, immigrants have journeyed to Canada from East Asia, Southern Asia, Western, Central and Southeast Asia, bringing our society a rich cultural heritage representing many languages, ethnicities and religious traditions. The people of these diverse, vibrant and growing communities have contributed to every aspect of life in Canada – from the arts and science to sport, business and government.

Canadian Jewish Heritage Month	A month to celebrate the richness of Jewish culture, heritage, and history in Canada. Judaism is a religion, but Jews have many different types of religious practices. Not all Jews are religious and, among those who define themselves as religious have different interpretations of Jewish law may guide their religious practice. Jewish prayer is conducted in Hebrew, and Jewish school children typically learn the language as part of their formal Jewish education. May is chosen because it's meaningful to the Jewish community around the world. It often coincides with Shavuot, or the "Feast of Weeks", which celebrates the spring harvest and the revelation of the Torah. CANADIAN JEWISH HERITAGE MONTH
May 5 Red Dress Day	Also known as the National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and 2SLGBTQQIA+ Peoples (MMIWG2SLGBTQQIA+) The red dress symbolizes the missing and murdered Indigenous women, and the colour red was chosen as it is believed to be the only color spirits can see. Hence, it is used as a call to the spirits of these women to return home. The day is marked by individuals and institutions displaying red dresses in public spaces, creating a visual reminder of the Indigenous women who are no longer present.

May 05—The National Day of Remembrance and Activism honoring the lives of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and Two-Spirited People (MMIWG2S+)

LDSS Drum Group, staff and students came together to raise awareness on the Red Dress Day.

Red Dress Day matters because it makes the invisible visible. It forces this country to confront the truth. It reminds us that every single life matters, that these lives still matter, and we will never stop fighting for justice.
