School Athletic Participation Form

1. This form must be completed by all student athletes and their parents/legal guardians.
2. It must be returned to the Coach before any travel can occur.
3. This policy will apply for the student athletes entire five (5) years of sport eligibility.
4. Athletics is one of the great opportunities for our students. They get to experience independence, leadership, sportsmanship and teamwork. We are very proud of our athletes. Our teams are also open to Home School and Independent School students that are in our catchment area.

Athletes will adhere to our school Code of Conduct

- treat staff, parents and other students with respect and dignity in both attitudes and actions.
- attend classes, on time and prepared to learn. Attend all practices. Notify coaches when absent.
- be appropriate in dress, conduct and language.
- respect school property; return all equipment.
- follow school rules, no drinking, no vaping, no drugs, tobacco products, no theft, no violence, no vandalism.
- report potential incidents of bullying, harassment and/or violent acts.

Any infractions may result in removal from the team and further consequences by the school.

It is also recommended that parents purchase accident insurance for their athlete: <https://insuremykids.com/>
